Summer term – Issue 35 – Friday 9th July 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

Class 1 children and staff are to return to school on Monday 12th July; however their isolation period finishes at midnight on Friday 9th July.

Pick up times will revert to – Class 1 – 3.05pm, Class 2 - 3:10pm and Class 3 – 3.15pm (unless they have a sibling then they will go at 3.05pm or 3.10pm).

You may have heard the information from the Prime Minister and the plans for moving to step 4 in the road map from July 19th.

We have taken the decision as a school to remain in class bubbles for the final week. Routines are embedded and everyone knows the expectation. Children would still have to isolate up until the 16th August should they have been a close contact of someone who has tested positive. I would hate for anyone to start their summer holidays with a 10-day isolation. So, we will continue to do as we have been doing for the final week of the summer term.

We are due to finish at 2pm on Friday 23rd July. We will allow parents to collect children from the playground with the proviso that once you have collected you leave the school grounds.

Star Learners for this week

Class 1- All of Class 1 (including Miss Caygill, Miss Burton and Mrs Fothergill) for the remote learning you have done since last week!

Class 3 – Lily for excellent effort re-drafting her balanced argument text and fantastic improvement in her handwriting. Jackson for excellent work on his balanced argument.

Visit to the Dales Countryside Museum

On Wednesday, Class 3 went to the Dales Countryside Museum. When we went in, the actor who was dressed up as a Victorian school teacher (John Iveson) checked all of our ears, teeth and hands, like they would have done in Victorian schools. We went into a room and had a slate with a piece of chalk, and the Victorian teacher demonstrated to us what school was like during the Victorian era.

After that, we went into a different room, where we looked at the huge mosaic which is made up of lots of different pictures of people. When you stood back and looked at it from a distance, it was black and white, but when you went closer to it, you could see all of the different pictures that were in colour. We all enjoyed looking at them, and some of us even spotted ourselves, family and people we know!

Once we had looked at the mosaic, we went to watch a video which was on a loop. It showed what life was like in the Victorian era for children. It was quite fun spotting ourselves, as we were filmed last year for this video, along with a couple of other schools. In the background, there were people who were children in the Victorian times saying what it was like.

Next, we were given little booklets which had a quiz in, and we had to look around the museum to find the answers. Once we had done that, we went outside and had to say what we had found out.

Finally, we did some physical exercises, and the actor read some things out of John Iveson's diary (John Iveson was a teacher at the Hawes National School from around 1872 to around 1875, and he had to keep a diary of what his students were like each day). It was quite interesting finding out what it was like, and what he thought.

Overall, it was a fantastic afternoon, and we all enjoyed it! A big thank you to the Dales Countryside Museum for inviting us.

If you haven't been to the Dales Country Museum to see the 'Story of schools' exhibition – then you haven't got long, as the exhibition closes on 18th July 2021. Go and see if you can spot yourself or a relative in one of the photos in the large mosaic. Children can go in for free!!

Reading Challenge

Children can find out all about looking after the natural world this summer when North Yorkshire libraries and the Reading Agency invite them to sign up for the Summer Reading Challenge.

The Challenge is aimed at children aged 4 to 11, encouraging them to read six library books over the summer holiday period. This year the theme is Wild World Heroes, and is all about what they can do to make a difference to the environment and stand up for the planet.

To take part and be a Wild World Hero, children just need to sign up at their nearest library. They'll be given a colourful fold out map of an imaginary place called Wilderville.

As they read their chosen books, they will receive stickers (some scratch & sniff!) and can use the stickers to fix an environmental problem and make Wilderville a better, greener place to be. There are more free incentives to collect along the way and those who complete the Challenge will receive a medal and a certificate to celebrate their achievement.

The challenge is open to all children aged four to 11, and they can choose from a vast range of books at the library or download them as an eBook from the catalogue. There are loads of fantastic new books about protecting the planet and our wildlife but they don't have to stick to that theme – any library book they want to borrow will count. It's a great way to encourage children to keep up their reading skills during the long break.

A brilliant programme of online events for families will also support the Challenge, including a cartoon workshop, a story hunt, finding out why rubbish isn't rubbish and how to be a North Yorkshire Rotter! Look out for more details of the events and great reading recommendations on the @nycclibraries Facebook page and local library pages too. The challenge starts in libraries on Sat 10th July and finishes on Sat 11th September.

You can find newsletters on the school website – (under news).

Our school milk scheme is administered by Cool Milk. To register your child for school milk, please visit <https://www.coolmilk.com/register>

If your child is under 5 they will have been registered using the bulk registration process but parents still need to register using the form/website. They will then get an e-mail when their child turns 5 reminding to make payment for milk when their child turns 5, in line with School Food Plan legislation.

There are also links to Parentpay and Cool Milk on the home page. Please remember not to pay for milk if you are going on holiday as they do not give refunds. You need to pay for dinners and milk in advance.

Holiday dates are on the website for parents to refer to. There is also a link for a free school meals application, please apply if you are eligible as school gets an amount per child to assist with their learning and to help with the cost of trips etc.
